It shows us God, searching across the landscape of humanity to find the ones whose hearts are fully devoted and surrendered to Him ...for He promises to strongly support the heart that is "completly His." As we read through the New Testament, what we discover, more than anything else, is that Jesus desires our heart.

Completly His - This Redeemed Life

The third book in the series "Completly His". It can though be read as a standalone. It is very well written. A bit confusing in the beginning but the questions were answered along the way in the story. I liked the story line and plot. It has very strong main characters and twists that was very unsuspected.

His to Own (Completly His, #3) by Ava Sinclair

I spent most of my Christian life wondering if there was more to it. I often felt numb in my faith...going through the motions. But, I found the passage, "Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you (James 4:8)" to be awesomely true. And that's what drives my passion for this blog and hope it becomes your passion too: A Heart ...
