Karen Traviss - Halo

As a fan of the machinima webseries Red vs Blue, Karen Traviss made several references to the series in her Kilo-Five Trilogy. The most prominent is the pronunciation of "Phillips" by the Sangheili as "Phyllis", which reference to two AIs in the machinima: F.I.L.S.S. and Sheila, whose original name was Phyllis.

On 21 July 2010 Traviss announced on her blog that she had signed a multi-book deal to write novels set in the Halo universe. The first book is set after the events of Halo: Ghosts of Onyx, and is a continuation of that story line. Explaining why she had agreed to write in the Halo universe, Traviss said that "Believe it or not, I really have found the backbone to turn down other series featuring heavily armoured, unfeasibly cannoned-up chaps struggling to find their place in an unfriendly ...

And then we get to Mortal Dictata. It's a strange book in that a number of plot threads built up in its predecessors are completely ignored and the story instead switches its whole focus to anti-Earth 'militant' Stefan Sentzke. I use the term loosely as Karen Traviss paints him as more of a poor dotting grandfather with no real axe to grind.
