The Green House Mario Vargas

The Green House (Original title: La Casa Verde) is the second novel by the Peruvian writer Mario Vargas Llosa, published in 1966. The novel is set over a period of forty years (from the early part of the 20th century to the 1960s) in two regions of Peru: Piura , a dusty town near the coast in the north, and Peruvian Amazonia , specifically the jungle region near the Marañón river.

The Green House - Wikipedia

Mario Vargas Llosa has, in The Green House, created a whole world that exists in the arc starting with Iquitos on the Amazon, to Santa Maria de Nieva in Amazonas, all the way to Piura in the desert of extreme northwestern Peru. It is a richly populated world, with governors, soldiers, police, nuns,

The Green House - HarperCollins

Mario Vargas Llosa is noted as one of Latin America's premier magical realists, in the tradition of Gabriel García Márquez and Isabel Allende. While The Green House lacks specific fantasy elements, it does provide the lyrical language and shifting time frames that are synonymous with magical realism as Vargas Llosa creates lush jungle habitats, boisterous brothels and lazy villages.

The Green House -- book review

Mario Vargas Llosa. A South American city is divided when a strange green house is built across the river. For young girls and the men of Puirá, the house is a night-time pleasure oasis. For the religious and moral forces in the city, the green house is the incarnation of the Devil - an evil that must be destroyed.
